	Name of Feature	Location	Personal Info	Date	Other Info
1102	Pulpit Rock Lookout 2	This lookout is located above Pulpit Rock, Blackheath.	See Pulpit Rock, Blackheath.	Officially opened 14th December 1935	Plaque placed at this lookout in 1939 reads "Pulpit Rock Lookout Officially opened by the Honourable E.A.Buttenshaw M.L.A. Minister for Lands 14th December 1935. The cairn and obelisk were erected by the Blackheath Sights Trust."
1103	Pumping Station Cave 2	Located at the top of Narrow Neck on the 4WD track half way between the pumping station and Glenraphael Drive, Katoomba.	Named after the pumping station, which pumps water from the Oberon Dam.	Location shown in Andrew Penney's The Rock Climbs of Narrow Neck 1978.	Penney describes as "a small cave holding only 3 or 4 people comfortably and well protected from the elements".
1104	Pyramid Fall 2	A waterfall on tributary to Bedford Creek, south of James Park, Terrace Falls Reserve, Hazelbrook South.	Named by the Hazelbrook Trustees Reserve Committee. Name descriptive of shape of the waterfall flowing over the rock formation.	Name approved by Hazelbrook Trustees Reserve Committee, 4th May 1896.	Mentioned in The Mountaineer Tourist Guide 1903 as "The Pyramid". Also shown on Map 1 in Terrace Falls book by Keith Painter 1997. Also see The Pyramid and previous name Denham Falls. Access via Terrace Falls Road, Dept of Lands Sign "Terrace Falls Walking Track" and 200m down track.
1105	Pyramid, The 2	Rocky outcrop above Pyramid Falls south west of James Park, Terrace Falls Rd Terrace Falls Reserve, Hazelbrook South.	Descriptive term to rocky outcrop.	Mentioned in The Mountaineer Illustrated Tourist Guide 1898	Referred to as The Pyramid and Rock Towers in the Blue Mountains and Jenolan Caves Tourist Guide 1908. Rock Tower mentioned in Hazelbrook Trustees Minutes Book on 4th May 1896. Also see Pyramid Falls.
1106	Queen Elizabeth Lookout 1	A lookout on the escarpment at Echo Point, part of Prince Henry Cliff Walk. Katoomba.	Plaque at this lookout reads "Queen Elizabeth Look-Out Her most gracious majesty viewed the Jamieson Valley from this look-out during her visit on 12th February 1954".	The Queen and Prince Phillip visited Katoomba on the 12th February 1954.	Official name to this lookout gazetted 23rd March 1954. Opened by the Governor Sir John Northcott on 10th October 1955.This lookout previously called (see) Projecting Platform and has also been referred to as Queen Elizabeth II Lookout. (Ref: Blue Mountains Courier 13th October 1955).
1107	Queen Victoria Creek 1	A mostly perennial creek rising on the Kings Tableland near Kings Tableland Trig Station, it flows generally SE and east into Bedford Creek, Wentworth Falls.	Named after Queen Victoria Sanitarium, located at the head waters of this creek. Sanitarium opened in 1903 by Admiral Sir Harry Rawson.	Shown on the Myles Dunphy Central Blue Mountains Map, September 1961.	Previous name Victoria Brook. Sanitarium name changed to Memorial Queen Victoria Hospital (now closed).
1108	Queen Victoria Lookout 2	Located on Furber's Steps between Rainforest Lookout and Furbers Lookout, Katoomba.	Named in honour of Queen Victoria (1819-1901) who reigned 1837-1901.	Old sign at this location reads Queen Victoria Lookout.	Views to Katoomba Falls and the Three Sisters. Previously called Queen Victoria Point.
1109	Queen Victoria Lookout 1	A lookout on the escarpment between Empress Falls and Lyrebird Lookout 250m SSW of Conservation Hut, Wentworth Falls.	Named in honour of Queen Victoria (1819-1901) who reigned 1837-1901.	Shown on the National Parks Walking Tracks, Wentworth Falls, 1995 .	Views over Valley of the Waters Creek and Prince Regents Glen. The lookout was linked to Lyrebird and National Pass during the 1930's.